

TAX OFFICE CORONAVIRUS UPDATE

March 25, 2020

The Nicholasville Tax Office has made the following changes in operations to comply with Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommendations, state guidelines, and executive orders by the Mayor of Nicholasville.

Office:

- Office hours: 10 am – 2 pm Monday – Friday
- The lobby is closed to the public

Tax Due Date and License Renewal Changes

- The filing and payment of Nicholasville net profit taxes by an employer or business entity for Tax Year 2019 is extended from April 15, 2020 until July 15, 2020 without penalties or interest.
- The April 30, 2020 expiration date for alcoholic beverage licenses has been extended until May 31, 2020.
- All other due dates remain the same.

Tax Payments:

- Cash payments can be made through the drive-through window during office hours
- Check payments can be deposited anytime in either of two drop boxes in the drive-through lanes
- As always payments are accepted by mail.
- The City Commission postponed until June 1 additional penalties for delinquent City 2019 Real and Personal Property taxes.

Questions or Assistance from Tax Administrator:

- Email: leanne.short@nicholasville.org
- Phone: 859.885-7618 for assistance or appointment
- Appointments: Scheduled by phone only as needed

Thank you for your patience and understanding. More details about the City of Nicholasville's adjusted operations due to COVID-19 are available at Nicholasville.org.