The City of Nicholasville held a public hearing January 29, 2009 at 4:00 p.m. to receive comments from the public regarding the use of Neighborhood Stabilization Program funds. The specific purpose of this meeting was to obtain views on housing and community development needs and review the proposed activities. Those in attendance were Mayor Russ Meyer, Commissioner Andy Williams, Commissioner Doug Blackford, Roberta Warren, Marcie Gabhart, and Tonya Coleman.

Mayor Russ Meyer opened the public meeting at 4:00 p.m. the public hearing notice was read as follows:

Notice is hereby given that the Nicholasville City Commission will have a public meeting on Thursday, the 29th day of January, 2009 at 4:00 p.m. local time at City Hall, 517 North Main Street, Nicholasville, Kentucky to receive comments from the public regarding the use of Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP) funds. The specific purpose of this meeting is to obtain views on housing and community development needs and review the proposed activities.

NSP funds were authorized by the Housing and Economic Recovery Act (HERA) of 2008. The Commonwealth of Kentucky will receive $37,408,788 from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for the NSP for the purpose of establishing financing mechanisms, purchase and rehabilitation, land banks, demolition, and redevelopment of foreclosed and abandoned properties that might otherwise become sources of blight.

All interested citizens are encouraged to attend.

A detailed description of the project being proposed and estimated amount of NSP funds requested is available for review at the Bluegrass Area Development District, 699 Perimeter Drive, Lexington, Kentucky 40517 or by calling (859) 269-8021.
