Employment Application Forms:

1. Accurate completion of the Employment Application Form is the first step in the process. The completed Employment Application Form (including required supporting documentation) will be used to determine whether applicants meet the minimum requirements and are eligible to enter the application process for Recruit Firefighter.

2. Please type or print, using black or blue ink.

3. All questions must be answered, and all blanks, boxes, and sections must be completed.
[use N/A (not applicable) if a question does not apply to you.]

4. No applicant shall participate in the process if the applicant has made false statements of material fact in the Employment Application Form; has used (or attempted to use) any unfair method to obtain an advantage in an examination or appointment to which he/she is not rightfully entitled; has directly or indirectly obtained knowledge of the contents of the examination to which, as an applicant, he/she was not entitled; has taken part in compiling, administering or scoring the examination; has used or threatened to use or attempted to use political influence in securing employment or reemployment; or has failed to submit his/her application correctly and fully or within the prescribed time limit.

5. All applicants for Firefighter must be a person of sobriety and integrity and must be and have been an orderly, law-abiding citizen.

a. Applicants must list all convictions (including those that have been merged) since age eighteen, including misdemeanors, felonies, and violations (including traffic and moving violations). A conviction includes any fines paid, jail sentences, probation served, and/or traffic school(s) attended. Give dates, offense or nature of convictions, county or city and state, and fines or sentences. [An Employment Application Form will not be considered complete unless all convictions are listed, and failure to disclose and/or falsification of any conviction will result in automatic rejection of the Employment Application Form.]

b. Convictions are considered in relation to the position (KRS 335B.020). An applicant's conviction record will not necessarily be a basis for rejection from the testing process; factors such as the date of the offense, seriousness and nature of the conviction, and rehabilitation will be taken into account. However, if the applicant lists any job-related conviction within 12 months prior to the application filing deadline date or during the testing and employment process for the position, the application for employment shall be rejected. [State law prohibits hiring an individual with a felony conviction, including a crime involving moral turpitude. Record checks will be obtained from the applicant's local police department or other agencies where the applicant may have a conviction(s).]

Use of Illegal Drugs/Substances:

1. The Federal Drug-Free Work Place Act of 1988 requires the city to maintain a drug-free work environment. Part of the city's mandate is to enforce all laws applicable to illegal drugs/substances. Due to the nature of government services, it is a business necessity that the city remains a drug-free workplace by ensuring that applicants are drug/substance free and continue to be drug/substance free while employed; or have been properly and professionally rehabilitated by competent medical professionals. Therefore, an applicant who is a current user of an illegal drug/substance will not be eligible for employment consideration during this process, and for 12 months from the date of such use. An applicant will be rejected if he/she has been convicted of the use and/or possession of an illegal drug/substance for the 12 month period prior to the application filing deadline date, unless he/she has successfully completed drug/substance rehabilitation program and remained free of any illegal drug/substance as verified by random drug testing. An applicant will also be rejected if he/she has been convicted of offenses involving the cultivation and/or manufacturing of an illegal drug/substance; possession of an illegal drug/substance with the intent to distribute; and/or trafficking in an illegal drug/substance for the 12 month period prior to the application filing deadline date and during the hiring process for the position.

2. An applicant's conviction history involving the use/abuse of illegal drugs/substances prior to the 12 month period and an additional period up to 5 years will be reviewed. The history may or may not be a basis for the rejection of an applicant; factors such as the number, dates, and seriousness of an applicant's illegal drug/substance convictions and rehabilitation will be taken into account. In order to be considered disabled under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) as a former illegal drug/substance abuser, submission of substantial medical evidence of same and of having completed appropriate rehabilitation programs will be required at the appropriate time during the recruitment and hiring process.

3. Current city employees who apply for the Recruit Firefighter position and are found to be using illegal drugs/substances will be referred to the city's Human Resource Officer and may be subjected to disciplinary action (up to and including dismissal) as outlined in the City's Drug and Alcohol policy.

Driving Convictions:

1. Automatic rejection shall not apply to traffic violations unless such violations and other violations involving a motor vehicle were not listed on the Employment Application Supplement Form as required, or there are over 6 points in the 12 months prior to the application filing deadline date and during the hiring process for the position in accordance with the following scale:

- a. Driving under the influence: 10 points

- c. Accident 3 points
- d. Speeding 3 points

Work Experience:

1. List all part-time and full-time jobs from the last 10 years, accounting for periods of unemployment; failure to list all previous employment within that time period will result in the elimination of the applicant from the process. When listing employment experiences, be specific about employment dates by listing month and year, job title, supervisor's name, reason for leaving, and a thorough description of job duties (for example, do not make statements such as general mechanic duties but list specifically such as analyzed engine problems, made engine and carburetor repairs, changed spark plugs, repaired ignitions, etc.)
2. Applicants who have more than one position with the same organization must complete a different section for each position (use extra paper for explanations, if necessary.)

The Employment Application Form will be accepted only if the Form is comprehensively completed, all required supporting documents are attached, and all required forms are signed by the applicant.

2. Applicants who do not meet the minimum qualifications will be notified of their ineligibility after a review and verification of the Employment Application Form and all supporting documents.

3. The procedures for eligibility, selection and employment for the position of Recruit Firefighter include:

- a. Written examination.
- b. Oral examination to determine the final group
- c. Background investigation.
- d. Appointment to the position.
- e. Medical/physical examination / Drug Screen/Psychological Examination
- f. Probation Period (1yr) that begins at the completion of recruit training
- g. Valid Candidate physical ability test (CPAT) card required at time of hire

1). The written examination will be given to all applicants who meet the minimum requirements for the position. The written examination is designed to measure the knowledge, abilities and aptitudes an individual need to be successful in the job. The written examination is a multiple-choice test, and applicants with the highest scores (to be determined by the actual scores of those taking the test) are eligible to continue in the testing process. Applicants will be notified in writing concerning the time and location for the test (applicants must be present at the test site by the time listed on the test notice because no applicant will be allowed to enter the test site after the test monitor begins the testing process.)

2). The Candidate physical ability test (CPAT) will be the responsibility of the candidate. The Nicholasville Fire Department does not conduct CPAT testing.

3). Oral Interview: Candidates who successfully completed the written examination will be invited to an oral interview by a panel consisting of individuals from the fire service, employees within the city government, and citizens from the community. The panel will ask each applicant questions based on job-related duties and responsibilities, and each panel member will independently score each applicant at the conclusion of their interview. The panels members' scores will be totaled to obtain the individual oral examination score for the applicant. Only those applicants in the top group as a result of their oral examination numerical standard score will be eligible to continue in the process.

4). Background Investigation: In establishing the eligibility list for Recruit Firefighter, individuals must successfully complete the background investigation. This includes but is not limited to a background questionnaire, interview with police investigators and an extensive character evaluation. Successful individuals will then be ranked according to their numerical standard score obtained as a result of the oral examination. Names of eligible candidates will be sent to the Chief of the Fire Department in sufficient numbers to satisfy the "rule of three."

5). Appointment to the Position: The Fire Chief, subject to approval of the Fire Commissioner, may recommend one of the applicants from the top three on the eligibility list. The Board of Commissioners shall make appointments, subject to the successful completion of a job-related physical examination (including drug/substance abuse).

6). Medical/Physical Examination: A job-related medical/physical examination (including drug and illegal substance screening) and respirator fit test will be given to applicants after appointment by the City Commission. In addition, under OSHA Standards 29 CFR 1910.1030, all individuals who would possibly be exposed to Hepatitis based on their job duties will be offered immunization at no cost once appointed to a position within the department.

7). Probation Period: Recruit Firefighter must serve a 12-month probation period. During approximately the first 12 weeks of employment, Recruit Firefighters attend in-depth training programs conducted by the Training Division of the Nicholasville Fire Department. In the remainder of the probationary period, Recruit Firefighters receive in-service training and testing on firefighter techniques (fire suppression and prevention), training in emergency medicine (EMT-B certification), and specifics concerning the procedures and practices of the Department. Recruit Firefighters are required to maintain passing academic grades and to participate in strenuous physical conditioning during the probationary period. (Currently, there is no transfer policy and everyone must go through the procedures outlined above.)
