Per Nicholasville City Ordinance 101-2023:

Sec. 2-744. PUBLIC COMMENT DURING MEETINGS.

- (a) Members of the public wishing to address the Commission on a particular subject shall sign up on a sheet in the back of the room. When recognized, the person shall state, for the record, his or her name, city of residence if the person resides outside of Nicholasville. Comment shall be limited to three (3) minutes. Members of the public who have signed up to speak may yield their time, when present, to another member. Under no circumstances shall a member of the public be allowed to speak longer than fifteen (15) minutes.
- (b) The commission may suspend this rule by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the commissioners in attendance at the meeting and allow members of the public additional time to speak on a particular matter.
- (c) Every speaker shall exercise decorum during debate, conduct himself or herself in a courteous manner, and refrain from using unbecoming, derogatory, or abusive language, and shall also refrain from making personal attacks or accusations.

This form is considered a public record and your name will be included in the official minutes where applicable.
